Conditions of Allocation

- Neither the CHA nor URYC take any responsibility whatsoever for the vessel or mooring, which is the responsibility of the mooring holder
- The mooring tackle must be checked as fit for purpose at the start of the season
- Sinkers, chains and buoys shall be of an approved standard and be installed in accordance and to the satisfaction of URYC and CHA
- It is recommended that a nylon rope is attached from the ground tackle through the riser chain to the swivel as a safeguard to the mooring chain
- The mooring buoy must have the mooring reference and boat name displayed
- Your moored boat must be in a seaworthy condition and be insured at all times
- Any change in boat should be consulted with URYC and CHA as to the allocated mooring area
- The mooring holder shall not transfer the mooring to another person
- The moored boat must display a current CHA Plaque
- Boats shall be clearly marked with a boat name and URYC
- Waste Disposal: The vessel owner is responsible for ensuring that all waste/garbage is taken ashore for disposal at an authorized facility and is not allowed to enter the marine environment. Vessels observed disposing of waste into the marine environment should be reported to the Harbour Master using the "Garbage Disposal-Complaints Form" available on the CHA website.
- Failure to comply with the above regulations will render the allocation void

Failure to return this form by 31 March 2017 will result in the mooring being reallocated

If you wish to give up your mooring please tick box and sign below

Boat Inspections

Please be aware that regular boat inspections are carried out throughout the year by Harbour Staff in regard to payment of Harbour Dues which apply to all vessels afloat within the rivers Crouch and Roach. Please ensure that your current Harbour Dues Plaque is displayed on your vessel where it can be seen at all times to avoid having a notice placed on your vessel when you have in fact paid but not displayed. Vessels not displaying a plaque will be deemed not to have paid Harbour Dues. (Crouch Harbour Act 1974 S.56)

NB: If you have not notified the Crouch Harbour Authority of a change of ownership the registered keeper is still liable to pay the Harbour Dues.

Penalty Charge for Non-payment of Harbour Dues

Failure to pay after written reminder will result in a court summons being issued for three times the full Annual Harbour Dues rate, recoverable as civil debt, plus costs (Crouch Harbour Act 1974 S.58). The Authority also has the right to distrain (seize) vessels and/or equipment in satisfaction of unpaid charges.

- I have received your letter on 12/01/2018 regarding my unpaid dues for 2017.
- I have now paid the amount of £100.00 on 15/01/2018.
- I have also notified you of my change of ownership on 10/01/2018.
- I have attached a copy of the receipt for the payment of £100.00.
- I have also attached a copy of the letter from the DVLA regarding the change of ownership.
- I am sorry for the inconvenience caused and thank you for your letter.
